Malmö, Sweden
15 – 18 November 2018
Dear MUN enthusiasts,

As the Model United Nations of Malmö (MUNmö) goes into its sixth round, we, the Executive Board, are thrilled to announce that this year’s conference will be held from the 15th to 18th of November 2018 in the vibrant and young city of Malmö, Sweden.

This conference is open for students from universities, as well as from high schools to create an overarching learning experience that is as diverse as the city it is held in.

The Executive Board works on establishing an academic environment in which the engaged youth from all kinds of fields can prove and improve their diplomatic skills, political knowledge, public speaking, and above all get new friends from all various corners of the world!

With an ever-increasing interconnectivity of countries in areas such as security issues and human rights, MUNmö 2018 will explore one overall theme, which could not be more relevant to international politics as well as the individual citizen.

MUNmö 2018 will have two application rounds. The first one is the “Early Bird Application”, which will open on the 8th of August and end on the 7th of September with a fee of 450 SEK (€50). The second application round will start on the 8th of September and close on the 19th of October with an application fee of 550 SEK (€60).

The committees and councils that will be chaired and constituted through our experienced staff members are the following:

The MENA Region
Committee topics to be announced!

Security Council (SC)
This classic council deals with international peace and security, conflicts, and, the deployment, changing, supervision, and monitoring of peacekeeping missions.

Human Rights Council (UNHRC)
Another classic council, the HRC discusses human rights issues, addresses violations of those rights, and proposes measures to counteract them.

Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization (UNESCO)
This new committee is concerned with coordinating efforts in education and promoting sustainable development and cross-cultural dialogue.

UN Women
Another new committee which aims to promote the empowerment of women and eradication of gender-based discrimination.
Welcome Delegates!

It is our upmost pleasure to welcome you all to this year’s Model of United Nations conference that will be held at Malmö University! Hosted by the Malmö Association of Foreign Affairs (UF Malmö), the campus will serve as an ideal location for the four-day conference which starts on the 15th and concludes on the 18th of November. Since the conference launched six years ago, MUNmö has developed in depth of academic quality, as well as the level of sophistication when it comes to events outside of the conference!

With all dedicated members of the Executive Board of MUNmö, we hope to enrich not just your CV, but also your personal life through expanding your horizon socially and academically.

This year’s conference will give you the option to either become a delegate of the Security Council, the Human Rights Council, the Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization, or UN Women with each of the respective topics that is linked to the general theme of the MENA (Middle East and North African) region.

Thank you for your interest; we are looking forward to receiving your applications! All information can be found on our website and Facebook page.

Best regards,
MUNmö Executive Board
